

Maison de Ville à vendre dans Descargamaría, Cáceres

118.000€

A solidly built 2- or 3-bedroom house overlooking the quiet village of Descargamaría in the Árrago Valley. Completely rebuilt in 2001, this house is ideal for people looking for a quiet life in a mountain village. The house offers spectacular views over the Árrago Valley and the area is perfect for walking, birdwatching (especially vultures and kites), swimming in the natural pools in summer and enjoying the local cuisine. The beautiful village of Robledillo de Gata with its traditional slate architecture is just 3km up the valley. There are no shops in Descargamaría but there is a market in every Wednesday, a health clinic open daily, a friendly bar/restaurant by the river and the village of Cadalso, 6km to the south, has a supermarket and a bank. * Approx. 130m² of inside living space on 2 floors. * Ground floor: reception area, summer living-room, summer bedroom/spacious study, storeroom and WC with sink. * First floor: 2 bedrooms, one with balcony overlooking the valley, bathroom with shower unit, large kitchen/dining/living room with balcony overlooking the valley. * Spacious glass-covered porch with views. * Double glazing in all rooms * Terrace with views. * Large rear patio. * Small inner garden with orange, lemon and palm trees. * Small outer garden with fruit trees. * Mains electricity. * Woodstove in living room. * Free mains water.

 0 chambres

 0 salles de bains