Local Area

The small town of Turre is located in the foothills of the Sierra Cabrera in the valley of the Rio Aguas. Dating back to the times of the Moors today's Turre is a bustling little market town. The labyrinth of streets in the old town are dotted with tapas bars and in the main square the natural fountain supplies drinking water to visitors all year round while the main thoroughfares offer a variety of shops, bars and restaurants that cater for all tastes and ages. Friday's are market days when local produce, amongst other items, is abundantly available.

There are a host of places to explore in the area and the nearest beach of Mojácar is only 8 kms away. Dotted with small pensions and hostals in and around the town Turre is a great little Spanish hideaway where one can enjoy local cuisine in a relaxed Mediterranean atmosphere. The Cortijo Grande Golf course, a 9 hole golf course with 18 tees, in the foothills of the spectacular Sierra Cabrera. Fed by an underground volcanic lake the course retains it's verdant lustre when all around is overwhelmed by the summer temperatures. Higher up in the sierra is the small village of Cabrera which has been built in the style of the Moors who settled the area many centuries ago.

Situated only an hours drive from Almeria international airport and 2 to 2.5 hour drive to the airports of Murcia and Alicante. Turre has excellent motorway access and in the next few years will be served by the AVE high speed train.
