

3 slaapkamer Landhuis Te koop in Mures, Jaén

139.000€

This is a great house as it has so much scope. It has loads of outside space too, with room for a pool plus views of the mountains. There is also a river bordering the land. Inside it could be turned into a lovely family home and has the potential to be made into two separate apartments if required. The garage is also large enough to be turned into another apartment, and it has a separate set of papers. Currently the ground floor has a double bedroom with ensuite bathroom, kitchen and living room. The 1st floor has a 2nd kitchen, 2 double bedrooms, bathroom and living room. Although it is semi detached, this is a large house with huge potential for either as a business or a great family home. Location: not far from Alcala la Real in a charming hamlet.
