

4 slaapkamer Gezinswoning Te koop in Martos, Jaén

39.000€

This a great townhouse in the historical area of this popular town.. The ground floor has been reformed and updated so you just need to update the 1st floor but structurally the house is very sound. Its has a great patio area at the back with room for a pool and ideal to make a garden area too. There is also a terrace off the 1st floor with great views. So on the ground floor is a new fitted kitchen, a bathroom, and sitting room / dining room. There are 4 bedrooms in total. So just do the updating on the 1st floor and you have a great property either for fulltime living, or using as a holiday home. It would rent well too and parking right outside too.
