Property layout

The house is situated close to the village centre, along one of its main streets. Upon entering the property, there is a studio-style room that could serve as an office or extra bedroom. This leads to a spacious living area with potential to be extended. At the top of the house, a large rooftop terrace offers panoramic views of the village and the surrounding mountains—perfect for enjoying the sunny climate all year round.

In addition, this property includes an extra 80 m² plot of land located next to the house (currently not connected, but with potential for integration). This space could be transformed into a private garden with pool, a vegetable plot, or even a self-contained guest apartment with independent access from the rear street.
