

Landhuis Te koop in Raspay, Murcia

139.995€

A rare opportunity to own and re-create a piece of Spanish history! This unique property, once a working winery (bodega) and a farm house, has 600 m² of built space with tremendous potential for an extraordinary house or a business opportunity in the heart of the Vinolapo wine region. The house, completely fenced, is semi-detached and shares access with the neighbouring property (not inhabited). Situated near village Raspay, short drive from the town of Pinoso, it offers stunning views of the surrounding valleys and mountains. Great blend of tranquility and convenient access, just 50 min from the beaches and Alicante airport.

The possibilities for the ground floor are endless, there are many of the original features still in place - the olive stone press, 2 original wine pits, which could easily be converted into storage, and an original oak wine press and metal press. There is also a huge original ancient water deposit with a lovely arch feature, this could be made into a fabulous dining area or a unique music auditorium with acoustics from the arched ceiling or indeed an indoor swimming pool or jacuzzi. The upstairs has very high beamed and curved ceilings and could easily be transformed to a fantastic living space.

The property is in need of a total reform. See the walk-through video to get an idea about the amount of work needed.

This property has the potential to be converted into a superb restaurant or unique bed and breakfast, or just restored to its former glory utilising the original features still in the property.
