Property Overview

A traditional townhouse located in the heart of Villanueva del Trabuco, a charming mountain pueblo in the Costa del Sol. Built in 1960, this spacious property offers a fantastic investment or renovation opportunity for those looking to create a beautiful family home or rental property in a peaceful Andalusian village setting.

The house is distributed mainly on one floor and currently features three bedrooms, a kitchen, a dining room, and a bathroom on the main level. It also has a large patio/garden area with access to a semi-basement, which includes several versatile rooms ideal for a workshop, study, or storage.

Although the property requires restoration and modernization, it has great potential thanks to its good size, central location, and private outdoor spaces.
