

3 slaapkamer Gezinswoning Te koop in Competa, Málaga

180.000€

This charming village house is situated in a quiet street in the well known white village of Comepta, near to all local amenities. Entering via a little terrace at the front of the house one comes into a living room with a store room off. On this floor there is also a spacious and bright double bedroom. From the living room one goes up to a little sitting room which gives access to a double bedroom, a single bedroom, a kitchen and a family bathroom with bath.

From the kitchen one accesses a large terrace where one can enjoy all day long the Andalucian sunshine as well as the views over the village, the mountains and the beautiful Mediterranean sea.

This house is in excellent condition and would be ideal for a family who wishes to live in a mountain village, but one that is near the coast and in a property that is already habitable. It would also be a good investment if one wished to obtain a rental income.
