

6 slaapkamer Landhuis Te koop in Los Alcazares, Murcia

695.000€

Here we have a cosy detached Finca with indoor and outdoor pool, 6 bedrooms, 4 bathrooms in the charming village of La Puebla. The small town of La Puebla is an 8 km drive from the seaside resort of Los Alcàzares on Lake Mar Menor. As you enter via the long beautiful driveway, the cosy property appears in front of you. At the front of the property there is a charming little bridge that goes over a cute little pond. And within tall hedges at the front of the house is the screened pool area with outdoor shower and has space for the whole family and friends to have an early morning coffee, soak up the sun and swim all day or enjoy quiet evenings watching the sun go down on the horizon. The pool area also has a large pergola and lots of lovely shade as well as an indoor kitchen/outdoor Zen area. There is parking for 4 cars in the covered carport and here is the garage which is currently used for storage. At the front of the house there is a lovely covered terrace of 59 m² with an entrance to the house, but you can also enter the house through the kitchen which is the heart of the house and has a lovely terrace outside. The kitchen has lots of storage space with a stunning island in the centre, the wood burning stove, a stylish seating area is an inviting space that makes this a lovely room for everyone to enjoy. From the hallway you will find the first of the very well appointed 6 bedrooms and the sumptuous family bathroom, with Jacuzzi and massage shower which is one of several bathrooms. The bedrooms all offer a peaceful, relaxing atmosphere, air conditioning, large windows and views of the finca. The master bedroom is exceptional, from the huge walk-in wardrobe, to the en-suite bathroom. This room is the size of a small apartment so this light, bright room has it all. The main living/dining room is full of character and with many features, every time you enter you'll notice something new. A range of beautiful wall units, extra large dining table, big comfy sofas to sink into while watching TV in front of the inviting fireplace! The patio doors open out onto a lovely Andalusian-style backyard with its own wishing well! It is also a useful utility area and has an entrance to a storage room/laundry room with a fantastic pizza oven/bake oven! The living room leads into the stunning wood-panelled library/office with a bright and relaxing atmosphere. The fifth double bedroom is also located in this area. From here you enter a fully equipped gym and games room which has direct access to the heated indoor pool.
