

Gezinswoning Te koop in Competa, Málaga

63.000€

This is one of our traditional townhouses, which requires a complete renovation, but it offers great potential for transformation. With approximately 40 square meters distributed over two floors, it provides a compact yet versatile space full of possibilities.

Although the property needs full refurbishment, its structure allows for creative redesign and customization. It could be converted into a charming small holiday home, perfect for weekend escapes, or developed as an investment project.

Thanks to its layout and location, it is also suitable for alternative uses such as a small office, studio, boutique shop, or other commercial purposes. With the right vision and renovation, this property can become a unique and valuable space.
