About Pinoso Pinoso (El Pinós) is one of Spain's most prosperous towns, thanks to its marble quarries, thriving shoe industry, salt deposits, and burgeoning wine and agricultural sectors. The town is located in the hilly countryside of the Alicante wine region, a 45-50 minute drive from the airport, Alicante city center, and beaches, and close to the border with Murcia. Pinoso offers all the necessary amenities: supermarkets such as Consum, Dia, Mas y Mas, and Hiperber; a wide selection of restaurants (including Irish and Indian) and bars (over 50); a 24-hour medical center; English-speaking dentists; a veterinarian; a weekly market on Saturdays; and a covered market open six days a week. Pinoso has three primary schools, a high school, and a music school. A new cultural center houses a library and offers Spanish language courses open to foreigners. Throughout the year, Pinoso celebrates its traditional Spanish festivals with parades and musical performances renowned throughout the country, and festive bonfires that bring the streets to life. Every year, a bull run (without animal cruelty!) attracts crowds from all over the region to watch the courageous participants enter the arena. The town of Elda & Petrer is a 20-minute drive away. It boasts a large hospital with English-speaking doctors, a wide selection of bars and restaurants, an indoor shopping center, a large international gym, Carrefour, Aldi, and Lidl.
