

2 slaapkamer Gezinswoning Te koop in Competa, Málaga

159.000€

Located in the charming village of C mpeta, this welcoming townhouse is very close to the center, with easy access to shops, services, and leisure areas.

Upon entering the house via a typical village staircase, you'll find a home with the charm and essence of traditional houses, evoking those cherished moments shared at your grandparents' house.

The entrance level comprises the living-dining room and the kitchen. From the kitchen, you can access a balcony that floods the space with light and offers pleasant views of the village's main street.

From the living room, stairs lead to the first floor, where you'll find a spacious landing, two bedrooms, and a full bathroom. The bathroom provides access to a small terrace, which, in turn, connects via a metal staircase to the fantastic upper terrace.

This spacious terrace is perfect for enjoying the sun, relaxing outdoors, or sharing pleasant moments with family and friends around a barbecue.

Without a doubt, a truly charming village house and an excellent investment opportunity.
