Santiago de la Ribera is a charming town situated on the shores of the Mar Menor. Originally a simple fishing village, it has grown into a popular holiday destination, attracting both Spanish visitors and tourists from across Europe. While modern, Santiago retains its traditional "fishing village" atmosphere. It boasts a beautiful promenade lined with majestic palm trees and two kilometers of wonderful sandy beaches. From here, you can enjoy a boat trip across the calm waters of the Mar Menor to the La Manga Strip. While the main shopping area is in San Javier, Santiago offers several shops to browse, especially on Wednesday mornings when a large street market is held.

Here are some ideas for enjoying Santiago de la Ribera:

* Spend your Wednesday morning at the large market in Santiago, then take a 40-minute boat ride across the Mar Menor to the La Manga Strip for lunch at the Tomas Maestro Marina, before returning to Santiago for an evening stroll
