Calabardina is a beautiful village with a beautiful area of plage which is very suitable for children in the lower age bracket. The promenade is lined with palms, bars and restaurants. A supermarket, a boulangerie and local facilities such as a medical centre are close by. This is a region that offers very easy access to many areas and good local transport, which makes it a popular choice for holidays or a holidaymaker, but not for the crowded big cities that have more equipment when you need it. Situated on the frontiers of Murcia and Andalusia, the region is well suited to its excellent plunge sites: Calabardina, the local port and several plunge clubs that sort out the have to be explored
