

5 soverom Rekkehus til salgs i Cuevas de San Marcos, Málaga

80.000€

This large 350m² build townhouse sits just a short walk from the centre of town and the local amenities that Cuevas de San Marcos in the Province of Malaga Andalusia, Spain, has to offer. The property is set out over three floors and has access at the side of the property in to the garden and a second access to the private 2 car garage which is located at the rear of the property. The ground floor offers a central entrance hall that has a good size bedroom on the left and a smaller study on the right. The hall continues to a bright and spacious lounge diner and kitchen diner at the rear of the property that opens to the garden. The first floor has a large landing the leads to a full family bathroom and 4 double bedrooms. The stairwell continues to the top floor that has a storage room another large bedroom and private roof terraces to the front and the back of the property. The terrace to the rear overlooks the garden area which has outbuildings and established fruit trees and plenty of scope to create a little oasis for those warm summer days. This property is in need of modernizing but would make a very large family home.
