

3 soverom Rekkehus til salgs i Martos, Jaén
36.000€

This is a very deceptive property from the outside. It has a great terrace with plenty of room for a jacuzzi or plunge pool and areas to take in the summer sun with nice views too. The house itself is in very good condition and bigger than you think from the outside! On the ground floor there is a cosy sitting room, fitted kitchen and a utility room with a toilet plus outside steps from here up to the terrace. There are some storerooms here too. Then on the 1st floor there are 3 bedrooms and a bathroom. Some of the reform work has already been undertaken so it just needs finishing now. Its in a really nice part of the town too. All services are connected so you can move in right away. Once finished this house would rent well and its ideal as a holiday home with that lovely terrace and good family home too for full-time living.
