Guardamar del Segura is a coastal town located in the province of Alicante, in the Valencian Community, Spain.

Location: Guardamar del Segura is situated on the Costa Blanca, along the Mediterranean Sea, approximately 35 kilometers south of Alicante city.

Beaches: The town is known for its long sandy beaches, which stretch for over 11 kilometers. The beaches of Guardamar del Segura are popular among both locals and tourists, offering opportunities for swimming, sunbathing, and water sports.

Natural Park: Guardamar del Segura is home to the Guardamar Pine Forest Park (Parque Alfonso XIII), a protected natural area known for its extensive pine trees and sand dunes. This park provides walking and cycling trails, picnic areas, and viewpoints overlooking the Segura River and the Mediterranean Sea.

Dunes: The sand dunes of Guardamar del Segura are considered one of the town's natural treasures. These dunes, located along the coast, are protected and play a crucial role in stabilizing the coastline and preserving the local ecosystem.
