

5 soverom Villa til salgs i Benahavis, Málaga

2.495.000€

Stunning individually designed Villa with absolutely no expense spared by the original German owners who carefully supervised all aspects of the extensive construction. The Villa commands one of the best plots in La Quinta which boosts views directly over La Quinta Golf and beyond to the Mediterranean Sea.

A family golf share is included in the sale meaning that the new owners will be able to participate fully in the local Club community. Large driveway up to the garage which has space for five cars has been totally renovated with a separate Maids bedroom and bathroom the space can be used for several other possibilities. The entrance to the property has a traditional ornate staircase that's leads all the way up to the first floor and looks up to the uniquely handcrafted stone arched ceiling. On the lower level you have a large Living room area with a large fireplace, with which overlooks the large pool and a dining room to the side. The Kitchen is everything you would expect from this stunning Villa with all your expensive work surfaces cupboards and kitchen appliances. There is a guest bedroom also on this floor with a separate bathroom. On the first floor there are 3 further bedrooms, all with bathrooms with the master bedroom having a large terrace looking out to the stunning views. The outside area has a large terrace with plenty of seating/dining area which overlooks the stunning pool and golf and sea views. A must see property.
