A magical retreat in the heart of Tenerife's nature

Among the green hills of our beautiful island of Tenerife, a charming cave house emerges—a natural architecture gem that blends perfectly with its surroundings.

With approximately 40 m² of space, this home offers a cozy and unique environment where peace reigns and time seems to stand still amid the whisper of the wind and the scent of damp earth.

The property includes a fenced rustic estate of about 3,200 m², an oasis of lively and wild vegetation. As a perfect complement, there is a 6,800 m² pine forest plot, a natural wealth that not only beautifies the environment but also connects with the island's history and Guanche roots. In total, nearly 10,000 m² of rustic land to live, dream, and invest.

The electrical installation is already planned, although this place is enjoyed to the fullest under the sun and the starry Canary sky, recognized as a UNESCO World Heritage site. Ideal for nights of astronomical observation and unforgettable moments.

Includes a 4x4 Jeep, perfect for exploring the surroundings and living the adventure without limits.
