Villa For Sale In Frigiliana

This property would make an ideal Bed and Breakfast.

This Villa is a remarkable retreat in the mountains of Frigiliana, a finca of over 7,000 m² where dreams meet nature, combining charm with historical relevance. A charming finca on the slopes of La Molineta, 500 meters from Frigiliana and less than 4 km from the popular beaches of Nerja. Set in romantic mature gardens with a swimming pool, three detached houses built in traditional Andalusian style in the mid-20th century offer a high degree of privacy, intimacy and independence.

This is a unique and unrepeatable property with tremendous potential. Ideal for a multi-generational family resort or a recreational home to enjoy one of the most unique settings on the Costa del Sol. It has a holiday rental license, so it can be a lucrative source of income when not in use. It can also be a unique product for seasoned investors as it offers an interesting return. The property offers ample parking space.

The property offers spacious gardens with a traditional Andalusian oven, trellises, gazebos, a fish pond, stone sculptures and fountains. A few minute's drive from the estate is Nerja, another of the most unique destinations in the province of Malaga. Its 14 km of coastline alternates beautiful cliffs with beaches and coves. It also offers three of the most popular tourist destinations in the province, such as the Balcón de Europa, the Nerja Caves and the Chillar River Route. Frigiliana is one of the most beautiful and unique villages in Spain. It is a picturesque place, known for its colourful and intricate narrow streets, although the most outstanding feature is the mark left by the three cultures that coexisted here (Arab, Jewish and Christian).
