This welcoming country house is located in the peaceful hamlet of La Zarza, part of the municipality of Abanilla. While it is semi-detached, the property offers a great sense of privacy and rural atmosphere throughout. The house retains its original charm and structure, offering plenty of potential for personal updates and customization. On the ground floor, you'll find a cozy living room with a fireplace, a large open space ready to be transformed into a kitchen, and direct access to a private patio—ideal for outdoor dining or relaxing in the fresh air. There is one bedroom downstairs and a spacious hallway upstairs that leads to two additional bedrooms, providing flexibility for family living or guest accommodation. Connected to electricity and water supply, the house also features a private water well—an added benefit for gardening or other uses. Outside, the property includes two plots of land: one smaller plot with a mature olive tree, and another larger, fenced plot that contains 14 almond trees. These outdoor spaces offer a wide range of possibilities, from creating a vegetable garden or leisure area to developing a small agricultural project or simply enjoying the natural setting.
