Location:
Located on the southern coast of the Mar Menor in the Murcia region, Lo Pagán is an enchanting seaside resort in Spain. The destination is known for the therapeutic Mar Menor saltwater lagoon, perfect for swimming and mud baths. The long beach offers relaxation, while the boulevard is full of dining options. Explore local culture by admiring historic buildings and San Francisco's charming church. There are various activities for water sports enthusiasts, and the Mediterranean climate makes it attractive all year round.
Lo Pagán is the ideal destination for a relaxing holiday with a touch of Spanish charm. Nearby you will find activities such as shopping centers, cruise ship viewing, city trips to Murcia, Alicante and Torrevieja, and golf courses.
Accessibility:
A sunny oasis just a walk from the beach. The trendiest shops are just a stone's throw away, just a 1-minute walk away. For golf enthusiasts there is beautiful terrain just a 20 minute drive away.
