Bright ground floor apartment with several patios and lovely evening sun In a quiet and popular area where the landscape opens up to the warm valleys of Murcia, a ground floor apartment awaits you, inviting you to live close to the sun, nature and the beautiful beaches of the coast. This is a home in very good condition, fully furnished and ready to move into - a perfect place for those who want an easy-to-maintain home with nice outdoor spaces and a harmonious atmosphere.

The apartment has several lovely places to enjoy the outdoors. There is a sunny terrace, a cozy balcony and a private patio that together create a beautiful setting for morning coffee, afternoon reading or a quiet evening dinner when the sun goes down. The evening sun is one of the home's great assets – it envelops the patios in a warm light and makes every day a little softer.

Inside, you are greeted by a homely environment where the furnishings are already in place and where each room feels both well-kept and cozy. The home is easy to move into, easy to enjoy and perfect as both a holiday home and longer periods of residence. The private parking space makes everyday life worry-free and the area around the house is quiet and safe.

The residential area has a nice pool area with plenty of space to relax, take a swim or just enjoy the sun in a peaceful environment. Here you live close to both nature and the coast - the beaches of Santiago de la Ribera are within easy reach and offer crystal clear water, beach walks and a leisurely pace that is perfect for relaxation and long days by the sea.

This is a home that captures everything that makes the region so appreciated: the light, the tranquility, the climate and
