The property sits over 150m² and is unique as it has access via the front and to the rear as it is a corner property. One entering you come into a lounge of good size then a passageway leads off into a kitchen which would benefit from updating. It is currently in the traditional Andalucian style and has lovely ceiling beams. Along with a traditional patio area there is also access from the side street to a higher patio/terrace with storage this could be turned into a garage.

This property is in need of some updating however nothing major or structural and is reflected in the price. It is an ideal holiday home or for full time living in a very popular location.

Rute is a larger Town yet unspoilt less than one hour from Malaga and offers a whole host of bars, restaurants and shops, famous for its Jamon and anis along with the Chocolate factory to which people from across Spain travel every year to see the famous nativity scene. Iznajar is right next to Rute and thought to be one of the prettiest white villages in Spain with its stunning lake and beach areas.
