Antequera is a medieval town set in the hills about 62 klms north of malaga. It is overlooked by a moorish fortress and located in a fertile river valley surrounded by olive groves and fields of sunflowers. With its El Torcal natural park, the lakes of el chorro nearby, it is heaven for both history and nature lovers.

This apartment is located in the perfect area of Antequera, right in the centre next to the restaurants, shops, cafes and with its fantastic balconies, a great place to view all the parades and semana santa!

All the rooms have large windows or double doors, letting in lots of light throught out the flat especially as it faces two streets on either side of teh apartment.

This apartment has great potential as it needs renovating, but it can be a very beautiful apartment for the size, location and views, a fantastic place to have as a family home or renting, but don't miss out on this opportunity.
