

3 bedroom Townhouse for sale in Medina Sidonia, Cádiz

525,000€

Stunning restored historic patio house with private heated swimming pool and extensive roof terrace offering outstanding views to the Cadiz coast.

Casa de los Sueños is a breathtakingly beautiful and unique property set off a cobbled street in the old quarter of the historic hilltop white village of Medina Sidonia. The Plaza de España with its good selection of quality restaurants and bars are within easy walking distance along with the tourist attractions such as the local church, castle ruins and natural spring fountains.

Medina Sidonia also a great base from which to explore all that the region of Cadiz and the Costa de la Luz has to offer. The incredible natural coastline with its award winning beaches are just a 30 minute drive away whilst the historic cities of Cadiz and Jerez de la Frontera are a similar distance.

Casa de los Sueños was completely renovated by its current owners approximately 3 years ago. It has been completed with the highest quality materials evident in every detail to create a perfect blend of traditional Andalucian features including authentic tiled floors and beamed ceilings with the needs of modern day living.

The property is arranged across 3 floors and a brief description is as follows:-

Entrance via private solid wood double door into the porch opening into the open central patio with original artesian well and beautiful tiled water-feature. On this ground floor level is the extensive living room/library with beamed ceilings and stone archway leading to the 3rd shower room and adjacent utility room with storage and all control systems for the underfloor heating
