San Pedro del Pinatar is a traditional Spanish coastal town located on the Mar Menor, the natural lagoon created by the La Manga strip, on the Mediterranean Costa Calida, it stands on the northern border of Murcia with Alicante. There are some fantastic beaches in and around the town of San Pedro del Pinatar or drive out to the dunes of Playa de la Torre Derribada and Llana beach, where there are a sports harbour and a restaurant, along with ample parking. The centre of San Pedro del Pinatar has every amenity including excellent health and sporting facilities, shops, boutiques, bars, good restaurants and banks and the weekly market is held on Mondays. The market typically sells fruit, vegetables, clothes, shoes and handbags. Most shopping needs can be met in the town, or catch a bus to the cities of Cartagena or Murcia which have everything. San Pedro del Pinatar has a large marina where water sport enthusiasts can enjoy all there is to offer from scuba-diving to snorkelling, jet-skiing, windsurfing and sailing. The playa of the Mar Menor has a palm-fringed promenade with many shops, boutiques, bars and restaurants where you can enjoy all day menus, snacks, refreshments and tapas which are a favourite. There are three golf courses just a short fifteen-minute drive away. You can tee off at the golf courses of La Manga, Roda, La Torre Golf Resort and the Mar Menor Golf Resort. There are several of the bars in town that are lively until the early hours along with discotheques for the young and young at heart. Murcia International airport is only 30 minutes away by car and Alicante Airport can be reached in under 50 minutes. Whilst the Mar Menor is a popular location for leisure sports, fishing and beach holidays, it is also known as the sea of health because of its warm waters, high salinity and healing muds. These are found in abundance in Baños
