Estepona, located in a privileged enclave, captivates its visitors in every corner. Its renovated old town, one of the most beautiful in Andalusia, offers the tourist the possibility to enjoy a real urban garden, The Garden of the Costa del Sol . Its network of white streets, decorated with colourful flower pots, give it the essence of a coastal Andalusian village. It has preserved its customs and traditions and has made them coexist in total harmony with its more modern and touristy appearance. It is committed to culture and exhibits art in its streets. Openair sculptures by prestigious artists; artistic murals that decorate the façades of the buildings and give life to its streets... A rich and diverse heritage surprises the visitor, who can stroll through the different neighbourhoods and areas that house pictorial works of great quality and originality in their buildings, and discover a new way of enjoying art. Here you can find a variety of all kinds of services such as: Restaurants, shops, medical centres, chemists, supermarkets...
