

3 bedroom Townhouse for sale in Torre Pacheco, Murcia

This very fresh and well presented Eagle Townhouse comes with 2 bedrooms on the upper floor and 1 in the converted underbuild.

On entering the property from the street or driveway you are welcomed with a spacious, tiled patio area with ample room for a pool, jacuzzi, barbeque and seating.

Through into the home itself, it opens up to a dining area and lounge area with an open plan kitchen. The dining area has room for a table and chairs with the lounge area adjoining where you can just relax. The open plan kitchen comes with all white goods and has a storage area to the back which would be ideal as an extra utility area. Radiator and aircon are both installed. You will also find a modernised shower room on this floor with a full suite and corner shower unit.

Moving down to the converted underbuild. This has been tastefully upgraded and converted to give another living
