

4 bedroom Townhouse for sale in Castillo de Locubin, Jaén

17,000€

This is the fabulous opportunity you have been waiting for. A cheap property with solid foundations and structure to improve and make your own. Please note that the property will need a new roof and various beams changing but otherwise you have a solid structure.

A stones throw away from all major amenities this property is bulging with potential and charm with lots of original features. There is potential to have 4 good sized bedrooms but as it stands only 1 bathroom. You could have a lovely sized living room with separate diner, utility room and kitchen. The property also has a courtyard with access into the basement area which again has plenty of space and could be converted or generally used as storage. The first floor also offers an undercover terrace boasting views over the town. Please book your appointment today to view this bargain and the potential it has to offer you.
