Punta Prima is a popular tourist destination located on the Mediterranean coast of Spain, specifically in the province of Alicante, which is part of the Valencian Community. It is situated on the southern edge of the Orihuela Costa, a coastal region known for its beautiful beaches and golf courses.

Punta Prima is known for its picturesque coastline, featuring sandy beaches, clear blue waters, and rocky coves. The area attracts tourists and expatriates seeking a relaxing beach vacation or a place to retire. The climate in this region is Mediterranean, with mild winters and hot summers, making it an appealing destination year-round.

In addition to its natural beauty, Punta Prima also offers a range of amenities and activities for visitors and residents. There are numerous restaurants, bars, shops, and entertainment options in the area. The nearby towns of Torrevieja and Playa Flamenca provide even more options for shopping, dining, and leisure activities.

For those interested in golf, Punta Prima is close to several golf courses, which is a significant draw for golf enthusiasts. The area's golf courses are well-regarded and offer stunning views of the Mediterranean Sea.

Whether you're looking for a relaxing beach getaway, a round of golf, or exploring the local culture and cuisine, Punta Prima offers a mix of attractions that cater to a diverse range of interests.
