San Pedro del Pinatar is a town located in the province of Murcia, in southeastern Spain. It is situated on the Mar Menor, a large coastal lagoon in the region of Murcia. San Pedro del Pinatar is known for its beautiful beaches, natural parks, and therapeutic mud baths.

Here are some key highlights and attractions of San Pedro del Pinatar:

Beaches: The town boasts several beaches along the Mar Menor, including Playa de la Puntica and Playa de Villananitos. The Mar Menor is known for its warm and calm waters, making it a popular destination for swimming, sunbathing, and water sports.

Salinas de San Pedro: This natural park is famous for its salt flats, salt marshes, and mud baths. Visitors can observe the salt production process and enjoy the therapeutic properties of the mud found in the area. Many people visit the salinas for skin treatments and relaxation.

Natural Parks: Apart from the Salinas de San Pedro, the surrounding area features several natural parks and reserves, such as the Regional Park of Las Salinas y Arenales de San Pedro del Pinatar and the Parque Natural de Las Salinas de San Pedro. These parks are home to diverse bird species and offer walking and biking trails.

Water Sports: The Mar Menor is an ideal location for various water sports activities, including windsurfing, kiteboarding, sailing, and paddleboarding. The calm and shallow waters make it suitable for beginners and enthusiasts alike.

Local Cuisine: San Pedro del Pinatar offers a range of restaurants and bars where visitors can enjoy traditional Spanish and Murcian cuisine, including seafood dishes and paella.
