6,750,000€

Stunning architectural masterpiece

Introducing a captivating five-bedroom architectural masterpiece that celebrates the allure of imperfection in a world obsessed with perfection.

Nestled in the serene hills of Benahavis, this contemporary-style villa spans 800m², including terraces, on a generous 4,139 m² plot. The house seamlessly merges the fluidity of water with a cleverly passive design, featuring high thermal mass exposed concrete.

Impressive features

Approaching the residence through a meticulously landscaped tree-lined driveway, you'll be greeted by a centuries-old olive tree and a lush yucca, both bearing testament to the windswept Andalusian plains. A natural bamboo bridge gracefully spans over water, leading to the grand entrance, where a truly breathtaking scene unfolds.

A majestic 20-foot-tall ficus bonsai serenely graces a reflective pool, playfully interacting with a waterfall and the soft filtered sunlight streaming through a glass ceiling above. The influence of architectural visionaries like Frank Lloyd Wright and Mies van der Rohe is evident, with the villa seemingly poised on multiple water features that elegantly flow through the house.

A floating bridge connects the east and west wings, which house private suites and a study adorned with treasures from around the world, including a piece of the moon. This residence caters to a range of interests, whether you're a sports enthusiast, a golfer, a music lover, or a devoted Tintin and Captain Haddock fan.
