Ciudad Quesada is a town located in the municipality of Rojales in the province of Alicante, Spain. It is situated on the Costa Blanca, which is a popular destination for tourists and expatriates.

Ciudad Quesada was originally a planned urbanization that has grown into a thriving community. It was founded in the 1970s and has since become a popular area for both permanent residents and holidaymakers. The town is known for its residential developments, golf courses, and a range of amenities.

One of the notable features of Ciudad Quesada is the La Marquesa Golf Course, which attracts golf enthusiasts from different parts of Europe. The town offers a variety of services and facilities, including shops, restaurants, bars, and supermarkets, making it a convenient place to live or visit.

The climate in Ciudad Quesada is typical of the Mediterranean, with hot summers and mild winters. The region is known for its beautiful beaches, and Ciudad Quesada is not far from popular coastal areas like Guardamar del Segura.
