

3 bedroom Cave House for sale in Galera, Granada

65,000€

Cueva Liliesleaf Galera

High up in the village of Galera is this lovely 3 bedroom cave house which would make a great holiday retreat or a cosy permanent home. It has been beautifully modernised in a traditional rustic style and is ready to move in. It is situated about a fifteen minute walk down to the village, with a great view from the patio looking down the valley, and with historic cave dwellings in the hillside opposite.

Liliesleaf has a smart gravelled entrance with a built-in table and seating on the sunny patio, positioned to enjoy the view. There is a storage cupboard on the patio for garden items and a parking space on a higher level with connecting steps decorated with lovely Spanish tiles. The solid wood front door leads into an open plan kitchen/dining/sitting area. There is a utility room off the kitchen, with a large fridge/freezer and washing machine. The kitchen is equipped with an oven and easy to clean electric hob with extractor fan. There is plenty of room for dining, and a window above the dining table lets the sun in during the afternoon. On the far side is the living room with a sofa across from the wood pellet stove and an attractive feature stone wall. The entire cave has a feeling of spaciousness.

At the back of the living room is a built-in shelf or sitting area covered with attractive inlaid tiles. The first bedroom, through a glazed door on the right, is a well-proportioned double bedroom with a high ceiling and a window to the front. Going around to the left of the sitting room is a hallway with two bedrooms and a shower room. The second bedroom has a high window through to the entrance area, which adds air flow through the house. The third double bedroom is on the right, with a curtained wardrobe. The bathroom has a shower and decorative sink bowl with a storage cupboard underneath.
