Cueva Los Corales in Galera Riego Nuevo

Unique Large Cave House/ Cortijo

1 hectare of land

Beautiful views of countryside

This fantastic cave-cortijo was recently renovated, retaining some original features. The house has two patios, a terrace, carport, workshop, and corral, plus a few unreformed rooms. There is about 1 hectare of land with fruit trees. The property is located in a pastoral hamlet of the beautiful village of Galera on the Altiplano de Granada.

The property is large, with lots of character, and all rooms are of good size. The main house is a cave that passes through the mountain so all the rooms have windows and light. All floors have been nicely tiled. The house has a new roof. It is on mains electric and water, and has a septic tank. Internet is connected.

The main house: Entering the front door is a large hallway, leading on the left to a snug with a pellet burner and the original bread oven, leading through a large archway to a rustic fitted eat-in kitchen. Plumbing for a dishwasher is installed. A door from the kitchen leads to a large utility room and a small cloakroom with toilet and sink. A back door leads you out to the veranda with a summer kitchen and brick bbq, at the back of the cave. This spot offers wonderful views across the countryside and the mountains of the Sierra de Cazorla, Segura y las Villas.

From the front hall, another door leads to a large double bedroom, dressing area and large en-suite bathroom with separate bath, shower and double sinks. Through an archway to the right from the hall you enter a large room with an
