Cueva La Piedra in Fuentenueva

Cueva La Piedra is a beautiful, fully reformed cave property with expansive views of the Sierra de Maria mountains. The cave is located on a quiet country road in the charming hamlet of Fuente Nueva, near the village of Orce, on the Altiplano de Granada. This wonderful cave property is very well laid out and tastefully decorated, ready for comfortable full time living or as a wonderful holiday home.

The exterior of the cave features Fuente Nueva's signature stone and rustic earth tone finish. The property has a large garden patio with a pergola and brick BBQ. There are several olive trees and a cypress and fig tree. A graceful stone-inlaid path crosses the patio. There is ample parking space. The covered wood storage area could be expanded to be a carport. There is a stone wall on either side of the property. The roof above the cave offers 360° views, perfect for a roof terrace.

Inside, the cave has a large entrance hall, dining room, living room, kitchen, 3 bedrooms and 1 bathroom. All of the rooms are spacious with high ceilings and most of the ceilings feature stunning wood beams. The cave has gracefully carved archways and ceilings that give it an elegant sculpted look. Some of the rooms have thoughtfully placed bookshelves or cabinets built into the mountain. The floors are beautifully finished with the traditional polished paint. The bedrooms are all quite large and have either a built-in wardrobe or large storage closet. Two of the bedrooms have a light well. The third bedroom has a window onto the patio.

The entrance hall leads straight back to the dining room and living room. To the right is the bright and airy kitchen
