

3 bedroom Villa for sale in Torrevieja, Alicante

160,000€

The house needs a complete renovation as well as the pool, but it has plenty of square meters and many possibilities. The potential for living or vacation rental could be interesting due to its natural surroundings and tranquil atmosphere. If you dream of creating a glamping site or renting out space, consider the available square footage in an area less than half an hour from beaches, trains, airports, etc. The house requires necessary renovations for year-round living and also features a large porch. In the pool area there is ample sunbathing space as well as room to create a guest bedroom or two enclosed garage spaces. Don't hesitate to inquire about this opportunity; in Alicante you have many hours of sunshine and great potential for your home or business.
