

5 bedroom Townhouse for sale in Cuevas Bajas, Málaga

139,000€

This beautiful double fronted 272m² build property sits centrally in the town of Cuevas Bajas in the province of Malaga in Andalusia, Spain, within walking distance to local shops and bars and a short 10-15 minute drive to historical Antequera. This property has a stunning tiled entrance hall with Andalusian tiles that leads straight in to the main reception room. On the left of the entrance is a good size lounge and on the right and ground floor bedroom or study. The ground floor continues with a bathroom, formal dining room and a spacious well fitted kitchen with plenty of storage space and a separate pantry. On the first floor there is a newly installed shower room and four good size bedrooms all with a traditional feel. Back on the ground floor a private patio leads to various outside storage rooms or workshops and on to a private walled courtyard. This is a fantastic family home full of character, must be seen to be appreciated.
