The House: _

GROUND FLOOR -

Large antique double doors from the street bring one into a large open plan room, with pillar supports . and a middle section dividing the space between the living room and dining room . The spacious living room has a large open fireplace and wood beamed ceilings - The ceilings are higher than normal, giving a light and airy feel to the room , the dining area is equally large and leads into the kitchen - The kitchen is a simple country kitchen design and could benefit from upgrading , but is none the less completely functional .

Off the ,living room is a spacious " front room " which would make a decent size double bedroom , or perhaps a cosy tv room /office/study . Off the dining area is another large double bedrooms .

From the kitchen there is a passageway to a large shower room. Access to the patio and car parking area. Also stairs to the first floor terraces.

On this ground floor there is an internal patio, with skylights, a lovely winter conservatory area and a large family bathroom , which is designed in a Moroccan style .
