

5 bedroom Townhouse for sale in Jalón, Alicante

375,000€

Unique townhouse with 5 bedrooms and three bathrooms in the famous village of Jalon in the heart of the village. The property was once a bakery and has been completely reformed keeping the traditional qualities but making it ideal for modern living. One entering the property you are greeted with a large hallway and spacious lounge/diner, there is a bedroom on the left-hand side, the lounge has a lovely stone wall and wooden beams. From there is a bathroom and then you have the large open-plan spacious kitchen and pantry. Both the lounge and kitchen have double doors leading to a beautiful stone courtyard giving both rooms lots of light, in the kitchen you also have access to a room not finished above the kitchen which would be ideal for an office. There is a large open staircase made with beautiful wood and steel giving you a modern feel. Upstairs you have 3 double bedrooms, two sharing a large bathroom, the master bedroom has a room which is prepared to be a complete dressing room, and a very large ensuite, the master bedroom has double doors which look over the courtyard. If this wasn't enough up another flight of metal stairs you have the same square foot of the floors below, it already has a laundry room and the rest of the space can be made into a separate apartment, gym, office, games room or more bedrooms. From the floor you also access a very large terrace with views to the mountains and you can also see the famous church dome. The property has a storage room which is at the entrance of the property which stores the pellet burner that heats the house with under-floor heating, all the windows are double-glazed and have blinds and the window frames have a wood effect, there is air con in each bedroom and fitted wardrobes. This property has been carefully restored to a very high quality and would make the most amazing home or could be converted to be a small business. Jalon is the main part of the Jalon Valley and this is one of the nicest renovated townhouses in the village, viewing is essential to see what it has to offer.
