

3 bedroom Townhouse for sale in Ronda, Málaga

330,000€

For Sale. A charming, turn key, family home in the most valuable area of Ronda. Tucked away in the historical part, this well restored and maintained property is worth a look. In walking distance to the world famous El Tajo bridge and amenities, schools, churches, restaurants, this is in the heart of Ronda and yet have the peace and quite that surrounds it. No pollution and traffic noise, and even wild, resident peacocks often roam around the cobbled streets. The house was restored in the year 2000 and has kept the original front door, wooden beams, an interior spanish patio and full of character. While maintaining its history and allowing for all mod cons.

The original front door remains and with clever design, a convenient interior porch has been created for extra insulation and safety for if you have young children or pets. The parking is only available for the residents, so you can actually park beside the house.

There is a high level of quality materials which have been used throughout the house, especially with the windows, doors, under floor heating through the entrance, kitchen and all the bathrooms, and split air conditioning and heating units in the bedrooms.

When entering the property there is a wardrobe to the left and to the right, a large half bath which has laundry and storage. It makes for a great mud room or even to leave bicycles.

On the ground level there is a spacious living room with a large window, fireplace and two large doors to either, open up the interior patio into an open plan layout or close to have the dining and patio separated. The interior patio skylights can be opened or closed. The fully equipped kitchen also has access to the patio and dining room.

There are beautiful terracotta floor tiles throughout.

Upstairs there is a large landing with two Juliet balconies overlooking the patio. This is a light and airy space that was often used as a kids play room. There is a good sized family bathroom next to the bedrooms. Each has a large Juliet balcony, floor to ceiling built-in wardrobes, and parquet flooring. The house has ample storage throughout. The master bedroom has a walk-in wardrobe and ensuite.
