

3 bedroom Country House for sale in Humilladero, Málaga

195,000€

This lovely detached property is situated in the town of Humilladero, with beautiful views to the Sierracilla mountains, in the province of Malaga in Andalucia, Spain and just a short walk to the local amenities the town has to offer including shops, medical centre, sports facilities and plenty of bars and restaurants. The property is also located 8 km from the Antequera - Santa Ana intermodal station (high-speed and medium-distance trains, to reach Malaga in 25 minutes, as well as Seville, Córdoba, Granada or Madrid in a very short time), and 11 km from the Dry Port of Antequera. The 500 m2 plot is made up of two independent plots of 250 m2 each (the house occupies one of them, the other is just a garden). Property sits within a completely private walled plot with access for off road parking and an amazing garden space that wraps around the chalet waiting for someone to enjoy. Inside the main entrance opens straight to the kitchen which is completely open to a lounge dining room with light flooding in from the front and back patio doors. From the lounge a central hall leads to a beautifully finished bathroom with twin sinks and 3 good size bedrooms all with built-in wardrobes. The lounge patio doors and master bedroom doors spill out on the a covered terrace ideal for morning coffee or an evening glass of wine.
