Pinar de Campoverde is a village set on a wooded hillside, 8 kms inland with views to the Mediterranean.

There are many northern European residents living here.
The centre of Campoverde has several bars, restaurants, a supermarket and a bank.
There is a small street market on Sunday mornings.

To the south west of the village is the famous Rio Seca Natural Park where you can walk along the (usually dry!) bed of the river. There is a spectacular gorge carved by the waters over millennia through the yellow sandstone.

The airports of Girona (Murcia) and Alicante are respectively 40 and 55 minutes away.
