

4 bedroom Townhouse for sale in Olvera, Cádiz

110,000€

Here we have a home less ordinary , from rustic plaster work to chestnut beamed ceilings and an indoor eater roof top pool it really is full of character and offers a lot to enjoy !Located on a typical street in the historic centre of Olvera its convenient for all amenities and a stones throw from the plaza and the main street.The ground on entering you have a snug receiving area with natural stone facia on the walls , this leads into a hallway off which there is the lounge and kitchen , the lounge benefits from a large wood burning stove with small oven and the light well which brings natural light down through the centre of the house from the atrium above , there are hand built shelves and nooks all adding to the charm, the kitchen is incorporated into the lounge space and into another space though an open arch , the kitchen has been hand built in traditional Spanish style is finished with tiled work tops and has a cooking hob , oven , fridge freezer and open shelving for more storage.To the rear of the living room a door opens into an amazingly different bathroom , this was once a stable and has maintained the ustic walls and is rather like a vaulted cave , the hand built shower / bath is finished with natural pebbles as is the entire floor, there's a large hand built vanity with wooden trim and a loo, its definitely a conversation piece !On the first floor there are built in wardrobes on the landing area and a sunny double bedroom with balcony over the street ,then there is another beautiful double room with beamed ceilings and a window opening into the light well .Up on the next level there is an open laundry area , with storage and marble work surfaces , once again a window opening on to the light well, to the front is another bathroom with shower unit , bidet loo ad sink , a glass door from the bathroom leads on to balcony style terrace with some lovely views, making this yet another special bathroom !On the second floor there are 2 further bedrooms both with built in cupboards and a light bight home office space .Finally up to the crowning glory , of course the roof terrace ! its large and has amazing views like many places here but one thing this place has that no other house we know of in Olvera has is a pool which is useable all year round ! , the pool is inside but billfolds open it out to the terrace and this pool can also be heated too !Above the pool is a large storage room which houses the pool pump and heater and it has double doors out on to the small lane behind . ideal for keeping bikes and other outdoor equipment So if your
