Town house in the coastal town of Cudillero

A fantastic stone built town house in the heart of the popular coastal town of Cudillero. This property is in excellent condition having had a complete renovation in 2009. The 330sqm house sits on a plot of 900sqm and offers many spacious bedrooms, large lounge and kitchen and a huge garage.

The accommodation is distributed as follows: From the front door you enter a large hallway off which are the stairs to the first and second floor. To the left is the spacious living room with large windows making it very light and comfortable room. At the end of the hallway is the large kitchen with lots of units, storage space and a dining table. Behind the kitchen is a small sitting area with additional storage, and large windows looking out over the 500 sqm garden and terrace at the rear of the house. Next to this sitting area is the first of three bathrooms. At the other end of the kitchen is a door leading to the huge garage which has a second kitchen installed, very handy if you are going to cook something that leaves a lingering aroma.

Also accessed from the ground floor, just off the kitchen is a door that leads to a really useful basement with a cider press and everything you need to make your own cider (except the apples!). This would make a great workshop, it has a window and a big double door opening out onto the terrace and garden.

The beautiful wooden staircase with a stone faced feature wall takes you up to the first floor where there are four large double bedrooms and the second bathroom. Continuing up the stairs to the second floor you'll see the skylight in the roof which creates a lot of light down through the stairwell. On this floor are two more spacious double bedrooms and the third bathroom.
