The villa is of course facing the Mediterranean Sea, with thanks to the design, optimizing the dramatic sea views all the way to the Peñón de Ifach, the famous rock and nature reserve Park of Calpe.

This development is designed as a big open space, materialized with a glass box containing the day areas. The first level contains the night quarters and offers a contrast to the light and fragile appearance of the ground floor. The massive concrete volume opens only to the south, offering dramatic seaviews from all bedrooms. Another impressive feature of this villa is the courtyard or patio.
