

2 bedroom Country House for sale in Torrox, Málaga

360,000€

This pretty country property in Spain has lovely views of the countryside of Torrox and the sea, it is 8km from the village centre and 12km from the coast. A private gate gives access to the driveway where one can park safely.

The house is set in a plot of approximately 788 m² planted with fruit trees, mostly avocados. A large covered terrace ideal for relaxing in the evening gives access to the main house which comprises a fully furnished kitchen with dining area.

Going down to the ground floor there is a very spacious and bright living room with a dining area and fireplace that connects with the upper floor, two double bedrooms and a large family bathroom with a shower.

The exterior of the property is equally enticing where you can enjoy the best climate in Europe taking a refreshing bath in the salt water pool in the hot summer days.

With all the additional comforts this villa has to offer and the superb condition of the property you could move in immediately after purchase and commence your dream lifestyle in sunny Spain.
