

6 bedroom Villa for sale in Salinas, Alicante

249,995€

Amazing, honestly amazing value. Two houses on one plot, one a beautiful 3 Bed 2 Bath Villa and the other an equally beautiful 3 Bed 1 Bath smaller Villa currently used as a rental and with the potential to bring in around 7,500€ per annum. The Main House has 3 good-sized bedrooms, with the principal being the largest and having the luxury of an en-suite bathroom. In both properties the living and sleeping areas are perfectly distributed and are separated by a passageway. The location could hardly be better, just a 10 minute walk into town with perfect access and on a 1,000m² low-maintenance plot with a further 3,000m² plot with fruit trees 50 metres away. The interior of both villas is excellent and both have Air Conditioning, mains electricity and mains water, both agricultural for the plot and vegetable garden and drinking water. The main villa has 12 solar panels, and subsequently, there are no bills. The garage is massive, the owner tells me it is 39m² but it looks bigger and could be turned into more accommodation if required. Here are six great reasons to live in Salinas, Alicante, Spain: 1.
