

4 bedroom Townhouse for sale in Caudete, Albacete

139,995€

Located in a prime position on the sought-after Avenida de Valencia, this spacious village house in Caudete offers an exciting opportunity for renovation and transformation. With a total build of approximately 400 m² across two floors, the property combines generous interior space with a private yard, making it ideal for a large family home, rental investment, or even a mixed-use project.

The ground floor provides a solid layout with multiple rooms and features, including a traditional fireplace and access to the yard. Upstairs, the layout allows for flexible reconfiguration, with plenty of natural light and access to a terrace. The home includes four bedrooms and two bathrooms, offering ample space for modern family living.

While the property is in need of renovation, it retains solid bones and classic charm, providing a blank canvas for your own personal touch. The 250 m² land plot includes a private garage with street access providing secure parking, a rarity in central village locations.

Though in need of renovation, the property's solid structure, excellent location, and generous dimensions make it a standout opportunity in the area.
